SENT VIA CERTIFIED MAIL - RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

RE: Demand for return of security deposit - [rental property address]

Dear [Landlord]:

I vacated the above rental property on [move-out date] and paid a security deposit of $[deposit amount]. Under Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-28-301, you may retain only lawful, documented deductions from my deposit.

[Before sending: confirm the statute covers your tenancy.]

DEMAND

I demand payment of $[amount improperly withheld], which you have improperly withheld from my deposit. If you contend that any deduction was lawful, provide the itemized statement and supporting documentation the statute requires.

Be advised that under Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-28-301(c), your failure to meet the statute's escrow and damage-listing requirements forfeits your right to retain any portion of my deposit, entitling me to a full refund. Should this matter proceed to court, I will seek all damages the statute allows, plus court costs.

Please deliver payment to the address above no later than [date 14 days from today]. If I do not receive full payment by that date, I will file suit in general sessions court without further notice. I have retained documentation of the property's condition, our correspondence, and this demand.

Sincerely,

[Your signature]
