SENT VIA CERTIFIED MAIL - RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

RE: Demand for return of security deposit - [Fictional Utah rental address]

Dear Daniel Reed (fictional landlord):

I vacated the above rental property on August 01, 2026 and paid a security deposit of $2,000.00. Under Utah Code § 57-17-3 (Utah Security Deposit Law), the applicable return rule is: Within 30 days after the renter vacates and returns possession, the owner must deliver the deposit balance, any prepaid rent balance, and the itemized deduction notice to the renter's last known address.

DISPUTED DEDUCTIONS

I dispute the following deductions under Utah Code § 57-17-3 for the reasons below. Please provide the records supporting each disputed charge, including the work, cost, and condition at issue. For replacement charges, explain the item's age and how you calculated the amount charged:

- Repainting ordinary wall scuffs - $900.00

Ordinary wear and tear - not deductible. Repainting after a tenancy is ordinary wear and tear unless the walls were damaged beyond normal use (large holes, unauthorized colors). Dated move-in and move-out photos help distinguish ordinary wear from tenant-caused damage.

I do not contest the following deductions, totaling $200.00: Unpaid rent balance ($200.00).

This demand does not cancel any accepted debt. Any separate claim or counterclaim must credit amounts already paid or retained toward that debt.

DEMAND

I demand payment of $900.00, the amount improperly withheld from my deposit.

Please deliver payment to the address above no later than September 22, 2026 (14 days from the date of this letter). This requested date does not shorten any statutory notice or cure period. If this remains unresolved after the applicable notice, service and waiting requirements are satisfied, I intend to file suit in small claims court. I have retained dated photographs of the property's condition, the lease, our correspondence, your itemized statement, the repair receipts you provided, and this demand letter.

Sincerely,

Maya Patel (fictional tenant)

Enclosures: Evidence exhibit list

Evidence pack

Exhibit list

This list is the cover sheet, not the evidence itself. Print it, then attach the actual items behind it in the numbered order: the photos, printouts of texts and emails, the signed lease, receipts. A judge reads the list first and flips to the exhibit - a list with nothing attached proves nothing.

Exhibit 1 - Signed lease agreement

Establishes deposit amount and terms

Exhibit 2 - Timestamped move-in photos/video

Baseline condition at the start of tenancy

Exhibit 3 - Timestamped move-out photos/video

Condition at surrender - rebuts damage claims

Exhibit 4 - Landlord's itemized statement

Shows the charges being disputed and its date

Exhibit 5 - Correspondence with landlord

Timeline, forwarding address, admissions

Exhibit 6 - Demand letter + certified mail receipt

Proof of formal demand and date

Exhibit 7 - Charge-by-charge legal analysis

Shows each deduction is improper, unsupported, or wear and tear, with statute citations - included as a formatted exhibit in the case PDF

Dispute table (bring this to court)

Repainting ordinary wall scuffs - $900.00

Objection: Ordinary wear and tear - not deductible

Legal basis: Utah Code §§ 57-17-3, 57-17-5

Charge-by-charge legal analysis (exhibit)

Prepared from the tenant's inputs against the state statute. Verify each citation against the current official text.

This analysis reviews $1,100.00 withheld from a $2,000.00 security deposit against Utah Code §§ 57-17-3, 57-17-5. Deductions disputed: $900.00.

Deductions, one by one

Repainting ordinary wall scuffs - $900.00 - Ordinary wear and tear - not deductible

Repainting after a tenancy is ordinary wear and tear unless the walls were damaged beyond normal use (large holes, unauthorized colors). Dated move-in and move-out photos help distinguish ordinary wear from tenant-caused damage.

Unpaid rent balance - $200.00 - Accepted deduction

Unpaid rent is a legitimate deduction if the amount is accurate - verify the ledger and any late-fee caps in your lease and state law.

Damages

Disputed: $900.00 Additional statutory recovery: $0.00 Total demand: $900.00

The current demand includes the disputed refund. Additional statutory recovery requires the conditions below; it is not automatically earned by a missed date.

Additional recovery is conditional and is not included in the present demand. After the notice-and-cure sequence: the renter recovers the full deposit (even lawfully deductible portions), the full prepaid rent, and a $100 civil penalty (§ 57-17-5). Costs and attorney fees go to the prevailing party only on a bad-faith finding.

A landlord may still pursue an unpaid accepted charge in a separate claim or counterclaim, so net recovery can be lower. Money already paid or retained toward that charge must be credited.
